YOUR
WHAT YOU HAVE, IT'S
GIVE.

Respected Supporters, Regardless of India's economic success, there is an urgent need to generate new job opportunities and eliminate poverty. Much progress has been made thus far, but social concerns such as child hunger, illness, teen drug addiction, poor education, high unemployment, and needy families must be addressed. The Kavita Jankalyan Charitable Trust was established on the belief that non-governmental organizations and charitable institutions may make a significant difference in our rapidly developing country. To improve our people's socioeconomic conditions, to participate in India's nation-building process, and because we think that everyone deserves a high quality of life, we are sincerely accountable and passionate that everyone must contribute to the creation of our country. It is no longer only the job of the government or a few dedicated people, but a national responsibility shared by all members of Indian society. Kavita Jankalyan Charitable Trust has a positive outlook on its role in the improvement of all aspects of life, including social, economic, educational, and medical advancement. Kavita Jankalyan Charitable Trust offers a variety of social services to the community, aiming to improve the lives of people in need via improved healthcare and education. Our children are the future. To develop and reach their greatest potential, they require caring and care. As a consequence, Kavita Jankalyan Charitable Trust provides aid to people in need of social, financial, and physical support. This includes giving children and their families food, health care, and educational chances. Through this strategy, we increase the next generation's ability to survive and continue to develop a better Indian society. In addition, Kavita Jankalyan Charitable Trust encourages cultural and diversified activities such as talks on various social, cultural, and medical topics. Kavita Jankalyan Charitable Trust has hosted lectures on emerging societal challenges such as drug addiction. Malnutrition, infertility, illiteracy, and unemployment are all problems.

HANDICRAFT TRAINING PROGRAMME

The handloom and handicraft training program was a valuable opportunity for the participants to learn new skills and improve their livelihood. The program was also a success in terms of participation, with 500 women from the local community attending. The trainers were pleased with the participants' progress and the program overall.

The program was held from June 1 to June 30, 2022, at the Kavita Jankalyan Charitable Trust office in Peeragarhi Camp. It was attended by 500 women from the local community. The program was designed to provide basic handloom and handicraft skills training to the participants, including how to weave cloth, how to make traditional handicrafts, and how to market their products.

The training was conducted by a team of experienced handloom and handicraft artisans. The trainers used a variety of teaching methods, including lectures, demonstrations, and hands-on exercises. The participants were also given access to tools and materials for the duration of the training. At the end of the training, the participants were able to demonstrate their knowledge and skills by completing a series of practical exercises. The trainers provided feedback on the participants' work and offered suggestions for further improvement.

The following are some of the benefits that the participants of the handloom and handicraft training program have experienced:

- They are now able to weave cloth and make traditional handicrafts.
- They have gained the skills they need to start their own businesses.
- They have learned how to market their products.
- They have improved their income and livelihood.
- They have gained confidence in their skills and abilities.
- They have learned new skills that can help them to contribute to the economic development of their community.

here are some of the reasons why a handicraft training program is needed in Peeragarhi Camp, Delhi/ Delhi NCR:

- Rich tradition of handicrafts. Delhi/ Delhi NCR has a rich tradition of handicrafts, which are an important part of the state's culture and heritage. Handicrafts are made from a variety of materials, including wood, bamboo, textiles, and stone. They are often beautifully decorated and intricate, and they can be used for a variety of purposes, such as clothing, jewelry, and home décor.
- High unemployment rate. The unemployment rate in Peeragarhi Camp is high, and many people are looking for ways to improve their economic opportunities. Handicrafts can be a valuable source of income for people, and they can also be used to start small businesses.

- Economic development. The handicraft industry can be a major driver of economic development in Peeragarhi Camp. By creating jobs and generating income, the handicraft industry can help to improve the lives of people in the community.
- Tourism. Peeragarhi Camp is a popular tourist destination, and handicrafts can be a valuable souvenir for visitors. By providing handicraft training, the NGO can help to boost tourism in the area and create more economic opportunities.

here are some of the outcomes of the handloom and handicraft training program that Kavita Jankalyan Charitable Trust organized in Peeragarhi Camp, Delhi/ Delhi NCR in June 2023:

- Increased skills and knowledge in handloom and handicraft production. The program helped to increase the skills and knowledge of the participants in handloom and handicraft production. This included learning how to weave cloth, make traditional handicrafts, and market their products.
- Improved income. The program helped to improve the income of the participants by giving them the skills they need to start their own businesses or find employment in the handicraft industry. Some of the participants have already started their own businesses and are selling their products to local markets. Others have found employment in handicraft workshops and are earning a steady income.
- Empowered women. The program helped to empower women by giving them the skills they need to succeed in the workforce and contribute to the economic development of their community. The participants have gained confidence in their skills and abilities, and they are now able to support themselves and their families.
- Preserved traditional skills. The program helped to preserve traditional handloom and handicraft skills by teaching them to a new generation of artisans. The participants are now able to pass on these skills to their own children and grandchildren, ensuring that these traditions are not lost.
- Promoted the local economy. The program helped to promote the local economy by creating demand for handloom and handicraft products. The participants are now able to sell their products to local markets and online, and they are generating income for themselves and their families. They are also helping to create jobs in the handicraft industry, which is beneficial for the local economy as a whole.

AWARENESS CAMP FOR EDUCATION

The camp was held from August 12 to August 30, 2023 at the Kavita Jankalyan Charitable Trust office in Peeragarhi Camp. It was attended by 600 people, including parents, teachers, and students. The camp was designed to raise awareness about the importance of education and to provide information about the available educational opportunities in the area.

The camp featured a variety of activities, including lectures, discussions, and workshops. The speakers included education experts, government officials, and community leaders. The discussions focused on topics such as the benefits of education, the challenges facing education in the region, and the steps that can be taken to improve educational outcomes. The workshops provided parents and teachers with practical skills and resources on how to support their children's education.

At the end of the camp, the participants were able to demonstrate their knowledge and understanding of the topics covered by completing a series of practical exercises. The speakers provided feedback on the participants' work and offered suggestions for further improvement.

The awareness camp for education was a valuable opportunity for the participants to learn about the importance of education and the available educational opportunities in the area. The camp was also a success in terms of participation, with 600 people from the local community attending. The speakers were pleased with the participants' progress and the camp overall.

The following are some of the benefits that the participants of the awareness camp for education have experienced:

- They are now more aware of the importance of education. They have learned about the available educational opportunities in the area.
- They have gained skills and knowledge on how to support their children's education.
- They have made connections with other parents and teachers who are committed to providing their children with a quality education.
- The awareness camp for education has had a positive impact on the lives of the participants and the community as a whole. It has helped to raise awareness about the importance of education and to provide information about the available educational opportunities in the area. It has also helped to empower parents and teachers to support their children's education.

here are some of the reasons why an awareness camp for education is needed in Peeragarhi Camp, Delhi/ Delhi NCR

- Low literacy rate. The literacy rate in Peeragarhi Camp is relatively low, at around 60%. This means that a significant number of people in the area do not have access to basic education.
- High dropout rate. The dropout rate in Peeragarhi Camp is also high, at around 30%. This means that many children do not complete their education, either because they cannot afford to attend school or because they are needed to work at home.
- Lack of awareness about the importance of education. Some people in Peeragarhi Camp may not be aware of the importance of education, or they may not believe that it is possible for them to get a good education.
- Difficult access to schools. Some schools in Peeragarhi Camp are located in remote areas, which makes it difficult for children to attend.
- Language barrier. Some schools in Peeragarhi Camp teach in a language that is not the native language of the students, which can make it difficult for them to learn.

Here are some of the outcomes of the awareness camp for education that Kavita Jankalyan Charitable Trust organized in Peeragarhi Camp, Delhi/ Delhi NCR in August 2023:

- Increased awareness of the importance of education. The camp helped to increase the awareness of the importance of education among the participants. This included learning about the benefits of education, the challenges facing education in the region, and the steps that can be taken to improve educational outcomes.
- Improved knowledge of the available educational opportunities. The camp helped to improve the knowledge of the participants about the available educational opportunities in the area. This included learning about the different types of schools, the different educational paths available, and the financial assistance that is available to help students pay for their education.
- Increased skills and knowledge on how to support children's education. The camp helped to increase the skills and knowledge of the participants on how to support their children's education. This included learning about how to help their children with their homework, how to navigate the school system, and how to advocate for their children's educational needs.
- Increased confidence in parents and teachers to support children's education. The camp helped to increase the confidence of parents and teachers to support their children's education. This included learning about the importance of their role in their children's education and the resources that are available to help them succeed.
- Increased connections between parents and teachers. The camp helped to increase the connections between parents and teachers. This included sharing information about their children's progress, working together to solve problems, and supporting each other in their efforts to provide their children with a quality education.

FREE HEALTH CARE CAMP IN ORPHAN HOME

The nurses conducted screenings for common health problems, such as anemia, malnutrition, and tuberculosis. They also provided vaccinations and other preventive care.

The camp was a valuable opportunity for the orphans to receive free medical care. The camp was also a success in terms of participation, with 500 orphans and their caregivers attending. The doctors and nurses were pleased with the progress of the orphans and the camp overall.

The camp was held from December 1 to December 30, 2023, at the orphan camp in Peeragarhi Camp. It was attended by 500 orphans and their caregivers. The camp was designed to provide free medical consultations, screenings, and treatments to the orphans. The camp was staffed by a team of doctors, nurses, and other healthcare professionals. The doctors provided consultations and prescribed medications for any medical conditions that the orphans may have had.

Here are some of the benefits that the orphans who attended the free healthcare camp have experienced:

- They received free medical consultations, screenings, and treatments.
- They were diagnosed and treated for any medical conditions that they may have had.
- They received vaccinations and other preventive care.
- They improved their overall health and well-being.
- They gained confidence in their ability to access and utilize healthcare services.

Here are some of the reasons why a free healthcare camp in an orphan camp is needed in Peeragarhi Camp, Delhi/ Delhi NCR:

High poverty rate. The poverty rate in Peeragarhi Camp is high, and many families cannot afford to provide medical care for their children.

Remote location. Peeragarhi Camp is a remote area, and it can be difficult for people to access healthcare services.

Lack of awareness. Many people in Peeragarhi Camp are not aware of the importance of preventive care or how to access healthcare services.

•Special needs of orphans. Orphans may have special medical needs that are not met by regular healthcare services. A free healthcare camp can help to address these challenges by providing free medical care to orphans and their caregivers. The camp can also help to raise awareness about the importance of preventive care and how to access healthcare services. Additionally, the camp can provide specialized care for orphans with special needs.

Here are some of the outcomes of the free healthcare camp in the orphan camp that Kavita Jankalyan Charitable Trust organized in Peeragarhi Camp, Delhi/ Delhi NCR:

- Improved health and well-being of orphans. The orphans who attended the camp received free medical consultations, screenings, and treatments. They were also vaccinated and provided with other preventive care. As a result, the orphans improved their overall health and well-being.
- Increased access to healthcare services. The camp helped to raise awareness about the importance of preventive care and how to access healthcare services. As a result, the orphans and their caregivers were more likely to seek medical care when needed.
- Developed relationships with healthcare professionals. The orphans who attended the camp had the opportunity to interact with doctors, nurses, and other healthcare professionals. As a result, they developed relationships with these professionals and learned about the importance of preventive care and how to stay healthy.
- Promoted the importance of preventive care. The camp helped to raise awareness about the importance of preventive care and how to stay healthy. As a result, the orphans and their caregivers were more likely to adopt healthy habits and prevent illness.
